NCAH Portal Guidance for NVSL Submitters

Last Modified:

The National Centers for Animal Health (NCAH) Portal is an external-facing web portal that allows for electronic communications between external stakeholders and NCAH agencies, including NVSL. The NCAH Portal is used to submit paperwork electronically for sample submissions to the NVSL.

Go to the NCAH Portal

Accessing the Portal

Use of the NCAH Portal for NVSL submitters requires a Level 2 eAuthentication.

Learn more about Level 2 eAuthentication

Create your Level 2 eAuthentication account

User Guides and Quick Reference for Submitters

Quick Reference Guide

Complete User Guide

VS Form 17-31 Sample Submission Spreadsheet

For More Information

Contact us at nvsl.info@usda.gov.

Important messages about updates and improved functionality are found on the NCAH Portal sign-in page.

Related Links

- NVSL Home
- About the NVSL
- Diagnostic Testing
- Reagents and Proficiency Tests
- NVSL: Lab-Related Forms
- NBAF Scientist Training Program

Print